A Note from Our Pastor

Even before I started as the Pastor of Hyattstown Christian Church in June of 2009, I was thoroughly aware of the impact that the previous quarter century of leadership by Rev. Dr. W F Terry had on this congregation – and on the community. When Steve & I went to visit the middle school where our son might attend if we ended up accepting the call and being accepted by the congregation, every other person at the school knew my predecessor! Then as I wandered through the community getting to know the place, everyone seemed to remark on Terry and what a wonderful pastor he was. And now he has left this earth.

Janet and Joe have had a challenge that not very many families undertake anymore – and that is to attempt to care for a beloved one at home while their bodies undergo the final stages of their time on this earth. They have done a great blessed deed, sacrifice much, and are much loved and praised by all who loved him.

Now we are all challenged to come to terms with the fact that we can no longer drive out to New Market, where he “held court”, and we would sit and be a part of his life. It will take a while to adjust to that hole in the universe and find our new way. But if there is one thing that will mark Terry as the extraordinary pastor that he was – it is the fact that what he nurtured, survived him. His wasn't a pastorate in which the survival of his ministry was totally dependent on himself. He created new spirits, his influence was one that empowered those around him, his ministry changed those around him for permanent good. He changed the lives of so many children through his drug free programs, his theatre ministries, Starfish, and not to ever forget his church work – for he was the consummate Pastor.

He loved and was loved and the source of his inspiration was never undeniable as being Jesus Christ! He will be missed, he will never be forgotten and he lives on in the positive changes he facilitated throughout his many, many, years of ministry.

Blessings, Pastor Lisa
