Reflections

New Beginnings by Pastor Ben

Pastor Ben and Carolyn would like to take this opportunity to wish all of you a very blessed and happy New Year! Did you know that New Year's Day is the one holiday that is almost universal? It is the world's most observed holiday.

Many of you made New Year's resolutions, one of which was surely that you would be in worship each week. I won't ask you if you've resolved to lose the weight you gained between Thanksgiving and Christmas. The late Erma Bombeck made some memorable resolutions over the years:

1. I will go to no doctor whose office plants have died.
2. I'm going to follow my husband's suggestion to put a little excitement into my life by living within our budget.
3. I'm going to apply for a hardship scholarship to Weight Watchers.
4. I will never loan my car to anyone I have given birth to.

Take heart! Another way of looking at resolutions: "Don't worry about those 2009 News Year's resolutions. You only have to deal with them until February and then you can give them up for Lent." (The Jokesmith).

Seriously... the new year is a time of new beginnings for us. Our faith teaches us that we can live the next 365 days confidently aware that our life matters and that God is with us and that we can do all things through Christ Jesus who strengthens us.

All of us have unrealized potential. The creation story and the prologue to John's Gospel both remind us that we are children of the dust who have the potential to be children of the Divine. This means that you and I have the potential to be like Christ.

The significance of that truth is awesome! We no longer have to live lives filled with inner conflict, anger, resentment, fear, hatred, guilt or rejection. By the power of the Holy Spirit we can become new people, God's people. This is a gift. To become children of God is not something we earn. It is a gift from a loving, merciful God. "To all who received him, who believed in his name, he GAVE the right to become children of God.” (John 1:12).

This is a time of new beginnings! I pray you begin this New Year knowing that you are an heir to the throne, not because of anything you have done, but because of what Christ has done for you. You have enormous potential physically and mentally. You have even greater potential spiritually. You are a child of God. May you live like Christ and go forth into this New Year aware of who you are, and to Whom you belong.

THANK YOU AND UPDATE FROM PASTOR BEN
REGARDING HIS SURGERY

“I thank the wonderful folks of Hyattstown Christian Church for their outpouring of cards, emails and other expressions of goodwill and prayers regarding my recovery from surgery.” – Pastor Ben.

Our interim minister, Pastor Ben Manning had surgery on his left foot on December 16th. It was to repair a condition called Achilles tendonitis and remove bone spurs which involved detaching the Achilles, shaving bone from the back of the heel and reattaching the Achilles. The surgery went perfectly and the plan was to be on crutches for thirty days without any weight on the left foot and then to be in a cast, followed by a special boot for up to three months. He had already planned to be absent from HCC on Christmas Eve and the following Sunday due to travel plans to be with family in North Carolina over the holidays. But alas, he did not plan on the doctor ordering him not to travel for 20 days for fear of blood clots and swelling so the Mannings had a very quiet Christmas at home. Happily, the Mannings had some quality time with grandkids and children as they made the trip to the Mannings for a few days prior to the new year. Pastor Ben followed the doctor’s post surgical plan to the letter and the healing has been enhanced so that he has been fitted for that special boot much earlier than planned. Mobility has increased (still on crutches) and pain has decreased so that now he can travel to HCC and will definitely resume his duties on Sunday, January 4th and for Bible Studies and other duties. Pastor Ben also wishes to thank his wife Carolyn for preaching for him on December 21st and continuing her puppet ministry at the church on Christmas Sunday. She has been a wonderful helpmate and nurse during his recovering.

Camp Starfish

We have planned the dates for our 5th Annual Camp Starfish! This year's camp will be held August 9-12 at Camp Mary Mac, near Sharpsburg, MD. As you may know, Camp Starfish is a camp for the children of inmates (who have at least one parent incarcerated in a correctional facility). This is a very high-risk group of children, with statistics indicating that over 70% will become incarcerated themselves. Camp Starfish hopes to make a difference in the lives of these children by offering them a summer camp experience that includes wholesome activities and good fellowship in a safe setting. It also offers great fellowship for our volunteers, who spend four days and three nights together working with these children in this wonderful setting. People should mark their calendars. Pierrette also mentioned that we need to build our funds back up a bit. The jail wasn't able to subsidize as much of the expense this past year, so if we plan ahead and donate now, it will be less painful for everyone!

OUR ELDERS

For Disciples, the ministry of the laity has always been central to who we are. Since the beginning Elders have presided at the Lord's Supper, visited the sick or those in special need, and offered oversight to the work and life of the congregation. Elders usually assist the pastor. We are in a time of transition, our Elders are available. If there is a spiritual need, please don't hesitate to call. If we don't have the answer, we will find someone who does.

ELDERS' TRAINING SCHEDULED FOR TWO SESSIONS IN JANUARY

Pastor Ben Manning has prepared two special training sessions for all our HCC Elders. These classes will provide some essential information and training to increase the skills and spirituality of these very important leaders in our congregation. The sessions will take place during the time between the Sunday morning services on two different Sundays: January 11th and 18th. We will meet from 10:10 to 10:45 a.m. in the new Parlor area in the education wing. We will cover the following topics:

January 11th "Ministry at the Table and Shepherding"

January 18th "Ministry to the Sick and Homebound"

We want to reaffirm that this training is for all our HCC Elders. Pastor Ben will contact each Elder and provide some recommended readings and a brief homework task to do in preparation for the first session. Pastor Ben has made the comment: "We have an outstanding corps of Elders at Hyattstown Christian Church. The training and sharing we will do together will serve to empower them even further to do Christ's ministry in this congregation and increase their skills and confidence in the fine work they already do."

Thoughts on Epiphany

Would We Welcome Three Odd Strangers Bearing Gifts?

Adapted from a Presbyterian church website. Matthew 2: 1-12

The word epiphany is a Greek word. Epiphania. It means “appearing” or “appearance.” Sometimes we hear it defined as “revelation.” When someone says, “I had an epiphany” that person usually means that he or she had an insight or a revelation that came out of thin air or dropped from the sky. Paul uses the word a lot in the many letters he wrote. He uses it to describe what will happen at the end of history – Christ’s “appearing” again.

The day of Epiphany marks the 12th and final day of Christmas. You’ve heard of Twelfth Night. You’ve heard of the twelve days of Christmas. This day is the 12th and final day of Christmas. For you mathematicians, you’ll soon figure out that the first day of Christmas must be December 26. The Feast of Epiphany in the church celebrates the appearance of the star in the east – (epiphany – appearance) leading the Magi to the cradle of the Christ child. The star – the appearing of the star – guided the way of the Magi – the Wise Men. Some of you have heard of names given for the Wise Men – Caspar, Melchior, Balthasar. But those names aren’t part of the biblical record. They came about because of someone in the 8th century. So those names are just part of the Christmas tradition that has been built up over time. But those names are not in scripture. For us, if we rely only on what Scripture tells us, the wise men remain nameless.

The magi, at the cradle of the Christ child, would have been scandalous to the first hearers of today’s scripture from Matthew. We’ve seen so many Christmas pageants and so many nativity sets and so many wise men dressed in regal garb – wonderful exotic colorful costumes. We’ve seen them process up to the Christ child with their gifts and we have no clue that in that day in that time the fact that they were there would have been so scandalous. Those first hearers of Matthew’s gospel – mostly Jews and Jewish Christians – would have had to spend some time wrapping their minds around the fact that magi were there in that scene. They were viewed as magicians – as foreigners – as present day horoscope writers. One commentator likened them to the Jeanne Dixons of Persia – stargazers trying to predict life by reading the heavens. Some have concluded that they were likely men who followed Zoroastrianism – a religion older than Christianity and still in existence. Whatever they believed and whoever they were would not have been welcome to the scribes and the priests and the religious faithful Jews. “What were they doing there?” might have been the response. Why are they kneeling at Christ’s cradle? And why are they giving gifts?"

We've lost touch with the scandal that would have surrounded the presence of the magi at the scene of the infant baby's cradle. And yet, they saw the revelation and knew what it meant and bowed down and gave gifts. The first chapter in Matthew is a long list – a genealogy. It too includes people in Jesus' family line that wouldn't have been acceptable – Tamar who presented herself as a prostitute, Rahab, a spy, who was a prostitute, the wife of Uriah – who was Bathsheba, and Ruth – a foreign woman from Moab. Questionable people linked up with Jesus and the wise men – the magi – continue that stream in Matthew. And at the end of Matthew comes the instruction from Jesus – make disciples of all nations.

Who are the wise men in our midst? Who do we welcome with open arms and who are we polite to but not terribly welcoming to. We are said to be friendly to visitors – to the guests who come and worship with us. But are our hearts really open to receiving their gifts. To finding out who they are. To understanding their lives – to getting to know them at a deeper level.

The wise men wouldn't have been welcome at that scene – they would have been outsiders and their presence would have been greeted tentatively at most – not by Jesus, but their presence in that scene would have been something everyone else who had waited for the Messiah would have had to grapple with. But those magi, those strangers, those odd guys, had gifts to offer.

Can we seek out the gifts that we have to offer and the gifts of those around us, and find different ways of doing things that push us to go beyond the way we've always done it?

In this new year, let's keep a watchful eye to experience epiphanies.

The Search & Call Committee

The Search & Call Committee has been prayerfully reading minister profiles. We have had productive meetings. Please continue to pray for our efforts.

Hanging of the Greens

Of course we had lunch before we started. Then everyone pitched in to transform the church into it's Christmas glory. When the poinsettias were added, many stopped in their tracks when they entered the sanctuary. It was breathtaking!

HCC Member News

Our church family is always on the move. So many people traveled over the holidays I can't list them all!

Scripture, carols, and candlelight focused on Christ's birth set the tone for a meaningful Christmas Eve service. Kayla and Angela Howard laid baby Jesus in the manger to start the service.

Sharron Smith shared her news. She is grandmother again! Griffin Lee Chandler born 12/15; 9.7.5 lbs, 21.5 inches. Mother and baby doing well and big brother Miles shows no signs of jealousy. Kevin is back safely from Iraq but will deploy again in early January, centered around the Ramadi region. Bill and Sharron returned from Seattle 12/23 in time to get to NC for Christmas with Kevin, Stephanie and Allie. There's still time to catch her art show at the Urbana library; it ends 2/3.

Pearl Anderson and the Seaman's niece are coming from North Carolina to visit Larry and Janice Seaman. It will be wonderful to see Pearl again.

Ellen Pierson participated in the Frederick County Children's Chorus Concert.

Angie Flook conducted her first concert as a choral teacher.

Meghan Blair is doing so well as a volunteer at Shady Grove that she was offered a job at Montgomery General. And Meghan has been accepted at Penn State!

Frank and Theresa Roys celebrated Kevin Elkins graduation from college. During the holiday season we were blessed that several families were able to be together, if only briefly, to celebrate Christmas.

What a joy it was to give $1100 to the children of Clarksburg Elementary. Teachers provide coats and supplies where they see need. It is a direct ministry that we collect for each year. We were also able to give over $500 toward Regional Church Programs. This helps keep our camp and conference youth programs in place. It also supports our Bethany Beach facility that we enjoy so much.
