This is the day of new beginnings, time to remember and move on, time to believe what love is bringing, laying to rest the pain that's gone.

For by the life and death of Jesus, God's mighty Spirit, now as then, can make for us a world of difference, as faith and hope are born again.

Precious Lord, take my hand, lead me on, let me stand, I am tired, I am weak, I am worn; through the storm, through the night, lead me on to the light: Take my hand, precious Lord, lead me home.

When my way grows drear, precious Lord, linger near, when my life is almost gone, hear my cry, hear my call, hold my hand lest I fall: Take my hand, precious Lord, lead me home.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.*

*HYMN: "The First Day of Creation" #54 v1,3

The first day of creation is dawning on the soul, upon the deep God hovers where fear and chaos roll. The inward dark is parting. The seas make room for land. Great shore-lines are emerging, a new world is at hand!

All life in Christ is compassed by that transforming grace which spins new worlds and wonders in every time and place. O Twirler of the star-dust, O Light no darkness rims, your new creation pulses with worship, praise and hymns.
