**HYMN: "Your Love, O God" #71 v1,3,4

1 Your love, O God, is broad like beach and meadow, wide as the wind, and our eternal home. You leave us free to seek you or reject you, you give us room to answer "yes" or "no". 3 But there are walls that keep us all divided; we fence each other in with hate and war. Fear is the bricks and mortar of our prison, our pride of self, the prison oat we wear. 4 O judge us, God, and in your judgment free us, and set our feet in freedom's open space; take us as far as your compassion wanders among the children of the human race.

1 Of all the Spirit's gifts to me, I pray that I may never cease to take and treasure most these three: love, joy, and peace. 3 The Spirit shows if I possess a love no evil can destroy; however great is my distress, then this is joy. 5 We go in peace, but made aware that, in a needy world like this, our clearest purpose is to share love, joy, and peace.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.*

*HYMN: "God Made From One Blood" #500 V1,4

1 God made from one blood all the families of earth, the circles of nurture that raised us from birth, companions who join us to walk through each stage of childhood and youth and adulthood and age. 4 Give, Lord, to each family in conflict and storm a sense of your wisdom and grace that transform sharp anger to insight which strengthens the heart and makes clear the place where rebuilding can start.
