token that by thy grace our souls are fed.

SUNDAY PRAYER REQUESTS

September 13, 2026 Barb Lang is enjoying the fall weather in Minnesota. She's thankful for improved health. She's happy to be able to join us on zoom each Sunday. Miranda gives thanks for all those on zoom. Chris is thankful for the people and interactions she had at the church yard sale. Pastor Santos is joyful for yesterday's yard sale. Our Puerto Rican brothers and sisters need our prayers as water on the island is limited due to a severe drought. September 6, 2026 Miranda shared that she is working towards getting a Technology Certificate. Chris's grandson Lucas has been diagnosed with Anxiety Disorders, Learning Disabilities and ADHD. She asks prayers for him and his family as they learn new coping strategies. Pastor Santos shared that she will be having dinner with two colleagues to celebrate one having completed a new book and two receiving appointments to serve new churches!

August 30, 2026 Barb Lang shared joy that her oldest grandson, Bryce, completed his basic training and is beginning his journey with the Navy. Grandson, Crew, just turned one. Her friend Peggy Jones suffered a stroke and is having trouble finding words. Joyce brought neighbor and friend Ida to church with her today. Debbie shared that friend, Rick Eaton, 76, fell off ladder and cracked his skull. August 23, 2016, Barb Lang is grateful for the love and connection she feels meeting with us each Sunday. The first song brought her dog, Nacho, over to participate. Her granddaughter, Ryan is doing well and was able to start school on time. Joyce appreciates our prayers. She is going to the Dr. on Tuesday to check eyes and do follow-up for the stroke. Pastor Santos 1Roberto finished his first round of chemotherapy.
